When the Day of Pentecost Came by David Lemmon

Opening Prayer (responsively) · Faye Wilson

Leader: As wind fills the sails of windmills in paddocks and taps underground stores of life-giving water;

People: so the wind of God's Spirit fills us and refreshes us.

Leader: As fire renews the bush by bursting open the seeds of life;

People: so the fire of God's Spirit brings renewal to our lives.

Leader: Wind and fire, symbols of energy and power;
Holy Spirit, source of our energy and power,
sweep into our lives this day,

People: that we may experience your refreshment, your renewal, your life.

* 🎵 Hymn of Praise · Spirit

No. 319

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Spirit of God, you move around us and we wave you away as if you are a fly getting too close to our heads. You move among us, but we all have different ideas, different ways of doing things, and so your perfectly chilling harmonics are drowned out by our chaotic dissonance. You move within us, but sometimes we just aren't willing to risk our own reputations to embrace your radical vision. But, deep down, we know that we need to move beyond ourselves, we know that the church needs to move beyond itself. So, keep moving, keep moving around us, among us, and within us, keep moving us so that we can be creators of movement in the world.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

*  Gloria Patri
