Prayer of Confession (in unison)

In a world shaped by conflict, where we seem to be slipping back into tribal divisions, you call us to welcome those with whom we have absolutely nothing in common. In a culture full of inequalities which only seem to be widening, you call us to treat each person as our sister and brother. In a time of intensifying challenges which are found in every community, if not in every neighborhood, you call us to yoke ourselves to your radical hope. In a lifestyle which idolizes the individual to the exclusion of all others, you call us to notice those in our community in need of spiritual connection.
